Vienna, May 27.

LETTERS from Feldt-Marshal Count Neiperg dated the 23d Instant from the Army encamped at Neiss, give an Account, that General Baronay commanding a Detachment of 1200 Horse and Hussars, had on the 16th sent to the Camp Ninety Carts loaded with Corn which he had taken, having routed a Party of Prussians that guarded them. That on the 17th the said General with his Detachment was suddenly attacked by 6000 Prussians, whom he repulsed thrice, and then broke through them Sword in Hand and retired to Munsterberg; where many of the Hussars who had straggled from him in his hasty Retreat, came in to him; so that his whole Loss was but of 90 Hussars and Horse, with a Lieutenant Colonel and a Captain: And that on the 21st that General with his Detachment returned to the Camp.

Breslau, May 27. On the 25th the King of Prussia detached from Molwitz General du Moulin with 2000 Horse to mark out a new Camp near Grotkau; and Yesterday about Three in the Morning his Majesty put himself on the March with his Army for that Camp. Grotkau lies between Brieg and Neiss, at a little Distance from Neiss. The Austrians continue quiet in their Camp near Neiss.
